

Haliburton Rocks!

Suggested Itinerary

The Haliburton Highlands really does “rock” in so many ways. Explore the rich minerals deposits, unique geological features, and rugged landscapes of the area while enjoying the great hospitality and fine folk of the Highlands. Your itinerary includes a visit to one or two sites to collect minerals .

9:00 Meet at the arena - 728 Mountain Street in the village of Haliburton (Look for the maroon van with Yours Outdoors logo)

Leave for Wilberforce area and Greenmantle Farm

9:30 Gems Beneath your Boots

A visit to Greenmantle Farm near Wilberforce for a three hour hike to discover undisturbed deposits of fluorichterite, orthoclase, tremolite, actinolite, apatite, and quartz. Your guide is Mark Bramham

12:00 Delicious picnic lunch at the home of Mark and Sandra Bramham

1:30 Mineral Collecting

A visit the Mumford Road Dig Site and Gibson Lake Dig Site (time permitting) for instruction and a search for samples of fluorite, apatite, titanite, actinolite and amphiboles. Your guide will be Jim Mercer

4:30 Return home